teens Ages 13+

Sports

JDP Racquetball for Youth and Teen

Instructor: Syndi Garay
Placement based on age and ability. All classes take place in the racquetball courts. Please call x268 for evaluation. Ages 7-15, $120m/$180nm, 10 weeks.

Rick Wallace High School Basketball

In-house intramural league. End-of-season tournament. All games officiated. Form own team or sign up individually. Free play for those enrolled in league Monday evenings beginning 12/5. League games begin 1/2/12. Call Allan Greenberg x252.

MON, $80/$130, PE1200

BBYO

Join teens from Greater New Haven for social and educational programming, community services, leadership training and exploring your Jewish identity. More: Josh Cohen at CVR@bbyo.org or 203-389-2127

Boys & Girls, Thursday, 7-9pm, JCC

MAKOM: Learning, Leading, Doing

MAKOM is recognized locally and nationally for its innovative programming and approach to engaging teens in Jewish life.

Learning

Wednesdays at MAKOM

A variety of courses and mini courses that emphasize learning through doing and real life application of concepts by students. Courses include: Israel's First Lebanon War from a Soldiers Perspective; Sex, holiness and tattoos for Jews living in the 21st century; Jewish Films Series: Past Masters; and Civil Disobedience & The Freedom Riders.

Fees: $100 per 6 week class; $200 per 12 week class; or $650 for full year (pro-rated)

WED, 7-9:00pm, begining December 16,
Fees: $100 per 6 week class; $200 per 12 week class; or $650 for full year (pro-rated)

Madrichim Institute

Monthly seminars focusing on drama, the arts, experiential learning and museum education. For teens working as teacher's aides in Jewish schools. Participants earn a $200 stipend for successfully completing the program.

SUN, 10am-12pm, once a month beginning September 25

Leading

TACT

A leadership youth council that meets once per month to plan and promote community service activities.

Begins September 13. Fee: $150 (pro-rated)

Doing

Chaver

You will be trained in the Jewish values of visiting with the elderly and sick in local hospitals and senior housing facilities. Fee: $150 includes dinner at each session.

March of the Living

Travel through Poland and Israel, experiencing Jewish history first-hand by witnessing the horrors of the Holocaust and celebrating the birth of Israel.

April 15-30, 2012, Fee: $4,560

Philadelphia Trip

Hands-on experience working with other Jewish teens to help the homeless and hungry.

February 19-20, 2012, Fee: $250

All MAKOM programs require a $36 registration fee – additional fees are listed for individual programs. Choose more than one program and receive additional options at 50% off listed price (Discount will be applied to lesser priced program - excludes Philadelphia Trip & AIPAC Summit)

More: Rich Walter x300, rwalter@jewishnewhaven.org or visit jccnh.org for full MAKOM brochure.